

ROOSEVELT GROWS WORN AND WEARY

Third Day of His Trip in
New York Finds Him
Irritable.

HITS NEBRASKA HARD

Bryan Is Drawing Immense Crowds on Trip Through Maryland.

A GREAT PROSPERITY PARADE

Norwich, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Tired and jaded Governor Roosevelt left Norwich at ten o'clock this morning for the third day of his charge through the state. The candidate is worn and nervous to the verge of irritability, but his indomitable will keeps him up. Stops today will be made at Earlville, Casenovian, Cantota, Rome and Utica.

At Rome Governor Roosevelt took an entirely new subject today, touching mostly upon state legislation. Referring to his efforts in framing legislation for New York he said:

"I studied with interest what has been done in New Zealand. New Zealand tried boldly a number of experiments in dealing with corporate wealth. I also studied the laws of Massachusetts. But I can tell you one state we only studied a little, because we found nothing in it, and that was Nebraska. They have had the populistic legislation there, and we found some legislation to avoid, but we did not find anything the other way."

Crowds Meet Bryan in Maryland.
Harlock, Md., Oct. 24.—Mr. Bryan began the day with a short address at St. Michaels after arriving at Clyborne from Baltimore by steamer. At Easton he spoke to one thousand. Here four hundred people heard him charge that the democrats contribute to the republican campaign fund through being gouged by the trusts. At Salisbury eight thousand gathered in Freman's park.

Rain fell all the morning. On account of the downpour most of the meetings were cut short, but the crowds in each case remained until Bryan had concluded his remarks.

The greeting extended to Mr. Bryan on his arrival in Maryland and during the meetings held was limited in numbers only by the capacity of the places in which they were held, and in enthusiasm only by the ability of the crowds to give expression to it.

Great Prosperity Parade.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 24.—Commercial travelers will desert their customers after Thursday of this week long enough to march in the big "prosperity" parade which takes place Saturday in Chicago. It is expected that 15,000 commercial travelers the majority from outside cities will be in line when General Marshall E. C.
Young gives the signal for the head of the formation to move. Fully 100, 000 men, it is expected will march in review and it will take eight hours for the parade to pass a given point.

Depend on Silent Vote.

Milwaukee, Oct. 24.—Mayor Rose of Milwaukee and Chairman Warden of the Wisconsin state central democratic committee were claiming Wisconsin for Bryan yesterday. Neither party having made a poll of the state and the campaign having been unprecedentedly quiet, they left determination of the result to "the silent vote" and claimed a majority of such for the democrats on the evidence of individual experience of party workers, sporadic polls and other surface outcroppings.

FAVORABLE TURN TO PEACE PARLEY

Li Hung Chang Says An Early Settlement Is Probable—Soldiers Dominate Sing Au Fu.

Shanghai, Oct. 24.—Li Hung Chang has sent a message to Sheng, director of telegraphs, that peace negotiations have taken a favorable turn and an early settlement is probable.

London, Oct. 24.—A Pekin dispatch says the soldiery of Gen. Tung and Fuh Siang are dominating the court at Sing Au Fu and it is improbable that the empress or emperor will be able to leave there.

MRS. DEWEY PLANS ACTIVITY.

Wife of Admiral Will Press Claims to Social Precedence.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Dewey has begun a new campaign to assert her right to precedence as wife of the admiral. She will stay in Washington and will occupy the house presented to Dewey by the nation. On the first anniversary of her marriage to Admiral Dewey, Nov. 11, she will give her first entertainment, and for this purpose the Dewey house has been entirely refurnished.

SECRETARY ROOT NOT WELL.

He Has Perceptibly Failed in Health
During the Last Two Weeks.

New York, Oct. 24.—The fact that Secretary Root did not immediately accompany the president to Canton, but left for New York, has caused considerable talk at Washington, according to a special to the World. The announcement is made that he will go west today after some private business has been dispatched in New York. He has an appointment to make a political speech at Youngstown, O., on October 25.

The health of Mr. Root is not satisfactory, and his family feel considerable apprehension over his determination to enter the campaign. It is said among his friends at Washington that his physicians earnestly advised him against such arduous labors and that Mrs. Root is distressed by his refusal to take this advice. Mr. Root's recent illness has proved more serious than at first anticipated and for the last two weeks he has failed in health perceptibly.

VOLUNTEERS TO COME HOME.

Removal of Troops from Philippines
Will Commence Nov. 1.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 24.—At military headquarters here it is stated that the first installment of the volunteer army now in the Philippines will leave Manila Nov. 1. From that time until next June the transports will bring home about 25,000 men at the rate of from 4,000 to 5,000 men a month. The sick will, if possible, be shipped on earlier transports, that they may travel without crowding.

The various regiments will be mustered out and paid as soon as possible after they arrive here. By this arrangement the camps now established at the Presidio will be sufficient to accommodate the entire army.

GEN. FRENCH HAS REACHED BETHEL

British in Eastern Transvaal After a Harrassing March—Casualties Number Thirty-Nine.

London, Oct. 24.—General Roberts reports that General French has reached Bethel in eastern Transvaal after a harassing march with casualties of seven killed, twenty-seven wounded and five missing. French captured eighteen Boers west of the Pinar river.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 24.—General Devillers, who surrendered with General Prinsloo recently, is dead from his wounds.

LABOR TROUBLES IN CHICAGO END

Strike On the New Postoffice Building
Has Been Settled and Work Begins Again.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—By signing of the three-years' agreement of the structural iron workers, the labor troubles, so far as they affected the construction of the new postoffice building, have been settled, and work is to be begun on the big structure at once with a large force of men.

Forty structural iron workers will be put on the great framework before the end of the week, and to keep pace with them a large number of workmen will be started setting the huge granite blocks of the walls into place.

As this work proceeds gangs of mechanics in other trades will be given employment, and the big skeleton of ironwork occupying the entire block bounded by Clark, Adams, Dearborn and Jackson streets, will be the scene of activity after having been deserted for nearly a year.

PLANS FOR CHARLESTON FAIR.

Largest Building to Be the Cotton Palace, 50,000 Square Feet Area.

Charleston, S. C., Oct. 24.—The directors of the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian exposition have received the designs and drawings for buildings and grounds. The plans include about fifteen important buildings, the largest to be the cotton palace, which will have an area of 50,000 square feet. Other buildings will be liberal arts, electrical palace, mechanical hall, agricultural hall, fine arts, administration, etc. For the government building it is proposed to have a replica of the white house.

Active work on the grounds will closely follow the acceptance of the plans.

BRIEF AND SIMPLE FUNERAL RITES

Prominent People in Washington Attend the Services Over the Remains of John Sherman.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Brief and simple were the services over the remains of John Sherman at one o'clock this afternoon at the residence of the late statesman. Many of the most prominent personages in Washington in official, professional and diplomatic circles were represented. The remains were escorted by a battalion of the Sixth cavalry. The body was taken to the depot enroute to Mansfield, Ohio.

LARGE GIFT FOR BELOIT COLLEGE

Sum of $350,000 in Prospect as an Endowment for School.

NEED THE MONEY BAD

College for Several Years Has Had an Annual Deficit of Over $11,000.

DONOR'S NAME KEPT SECRET

Chicago, Oct. 24.—An endowment fund of $350,000 was placed within the reach of the trustees of Beloit college at a meeting of the ways and means committee at the Union League yesterday. One of the trustees announced that if $150,000 was raised by other friends of the institution a check of $200,000 would be placed immediately in the committee's hands by him.

$30,000 Was Pledged.

Thirty thousand dollars of the $150, 000 required was pledged immediately by members of the committee who were present, and President Edward D. Eaton of the college asserted that the remainder would be raised and the $200,000 claimed before January 1, 1901. There is an unconfirmed report that Frank G. Logan promised the $200,000.

The announcement of the large endowment that, from the stated conditions, seemed to be almost in the grasp of the institution, caused first surprise and then enthusiasm on the part of the trustees. The meeting of the committee had been called especially that the announcement might be made, but not all the trustees were in the secret.

College Has Annual Deficit.

Additional endowment is needed by the college, which for several years has suffered an annual deficit of from $11,000 to $15,000 owing to the increased expenses occasioned by the growth of the institution and the shrinkage in its revenues owing to the decreased rate of interest on its invested funds.

Means have often been discussed by which an endowment large enough to cover the deficit or give the trustees a surplus could be raised, but no satisfactory solution of the problem came until the announcement made at the meeting yesterday.

Names Kept Secret.

The name of the guarantor of the $200,000 and the names of those who immediately subscribed $30,000 are kept secret, owing to an agreement entered into by all present at the meeting. When asked whether Frank G. Logan was the man one of the trustees approached denied it and none would affirm it.

Beloit celebrated its fiftieth anniversary in 1897. It has the unique distinction of having had but two presidents in its half century of life, the Rev. A. L. Chapin, one of the founders and its president, having been succeeded only fourteen years ago by the present president, the Rev. Edward D.
Eaton, an alumnus of the college.
Since its founding Beloit has grown steadily. On several occasions it has been the beneficiary of the generosity of Dr. D. K. Pearsons.

TO MODIFY THE LAW OF 1899.

Judge C. E. Dyer Appears Before the State Tax Commission.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 24.—Judge C. E.
Dyer, counsel for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company appeared before the Tax Commission yesterday afternoon and argued at length for a modification of the law of 1899 taxing insurance companies. According to Judge Dyer the Northwestern suffered severely by reason of the retaliatory laws of other states and also because a tax on all the premium receipts of the Northwestern was double taxation and so unjust and oppressive. He made a strong plea for relief for the Northwestern in these two particulars.

Judge Orton, the author of the law of 1899, was present to hear Judge Dyer's argument and asked permission of the commission to file later a written argument in answer to Judge Dyer in support of the present law. Such permission was granted.

Carlisle Has His Own Reasons.

New York, Oct. 24.—John G. Carlisle in a statement issued to the press says that for reasons entirely satisfactory to himself he has determined not to vote for either presidential candidates and that this determination has been known to his personal friends ever since the nominations have been made. A morning paper included Carlisle's name as one of the democrats who have come out strongly for the re-election of Mc-Kinley.

ion of St. Paul Road

LA FOLLETTE HERE TOMORROW

Milwaukee, Oct. 24.—Chairman G.
E. Bryant of the republican state central committee received a letter from Congressman Joseph Babcock, saying that he intended to take a party of congressmen and senators through his district on a special train on Oct. 30 and 31. The train will leave Madison early and stop at every railway station in Iowa, Grant, Crawford, Richland, Sauk, Juneau and Vernon counties. Adams county which is also in the district is not touched by any railroad so it cannot be included in the itinerary. Mr. Babcock said that he would be accompanied by Congressman James S. Sherman of Utica, N. Y., John A. T. Hull of Des Moines, Ia., Joe G. Cannon of Danville, Ill., C. B.
Landis of Delphi, Ind., and Jesse Overstreet of Indianapolis. He said he could not tell what senators would be in the party.

La Follette's Route Changed.

As Mr. La Follette served in congress with several of these speakers, General Bryant, out of courtesy to them, decided to change the Madison man's itinerary so that he would be in the same territory with them. As arranged several days ago Mr. La-Follette was to have spent Oct. 31 on the Milwaukee road between Madison and Prairie du Chien. Instead he will speak on that day at Marshfield, Greenwood, Fairchild, Mondovi, Osceola and Menomonie.

A change has also been made in the itinerary for next Friday, Oct. 26.
Mr. LaFollette intended to spend that day on the Mineral Point division of the Milwaukee road, but as a portion of that district will be visited by Mr.
Babcock's party he abandoned his first plan and decided to spend that day at Marshfield, Trempealeau, Bangor, Sparta, Baraboo, Lodi, Evansville and Beloit.

As the southern portion of the Third and western portion of the First congressional district were in his old district, when he was in congress, Mr.
La Follette feels they are still loyal to him and will give him hearty support notwithstanding his inability to make addresses to them.

The Revised Schedule.

The revised schedule for Mr. La-Follette's train as given out by Gen.
Bryant last night was as follows:

OCTOBER 24.

12:35 p. m.
Leave Menasha 12:30 p. m.; arrive at Wau-ville at 5:30 p. m. Speech.

FRANCE IS AFRAID TO HARBOR KRUGER

He Will Be Asked to Make His Stay
Short—It Might Not Be Agreeable To England.

Paris, Oct. 24.—The English ambassador here signified to the foreign office that a long stay which Kruger contemplates at Nice will be disagreeable to England, so Kruger will be urged to make only a short stay in France.
The French government has prepared to receive Kruger upon his arrival at Marseilles with some degree of ceremony, but is opposed to his continued stay. Belgium has already expressed the wish that his visit to that country be made as brief as possible, so that the former president of the Transvaal is said to be contemplating an extended unofficial tour of the United States and Europe.

Root Visits McKinley.

MAUD GONNE BANDS CHILDREN

She Is Organizing 20,000 Juveniles in Opposition to England.

New York, Oct. 24.—A dispatch from Dublin says that Maude Gonne is organizing Irish children and educating them in hostility to England. She is banding together 20,000 children, who refused to participate in the demonstration in Phoenix park last spring during the queen's visit. Evening classes have been organized to teach the Irish language and history. Maude Gonne has issued an address saying "It is owing to the neglect of these subjects by the present system of English education in Ireland that over 20, 000 of Ireland's sons are today wearing the uniform of her oppressors and incurring moral guilt and the contempt of the civilized world by fighting England's wars against liberty and right."

MISSIONARY DELEGATES MEET

Annual Gathering of American Association at Springfield, Mass.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 24.—The fiftifourth annual meeting of the American Missionary association opened here today, with over 400 delegates in attendance, and will continue until Thursday evening, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Mayor W. P. Hayes gave the address of welcome for the city and the Rev. Philip S. Moxom, D. D., the address of welcome for the churches, to which Dr.
F. A. Noble of Chicago responded.

The report of the treasurer, H. W.
Hubbard of New York, was then presented and the report of the executive committee was read by Chairman Charles A. Hull of New York.

Wedding for January.

of Wilhelmína to Prince Heinrich is set for January 17.

CANNOT ENFORCE THE CURFEW LAW

The Mayor of Racine Answers Request of the Civic Federation in the Negative.

Racine, Wis., Oct. 24.—In answer to the request of two ministers, members of the Civic federation, for the strict enforcement of the curfew law, Mayor Higgins stated today that he could not enforce observance of the law.

He declared that it would not do to arrest children and place them in jail for not being off the street at a certain hour. Parents would resist this, and he would to if his children were arrested.

As to closing saloons on Sunday
the Mayor said it could not be done.
He promised the ministers, however,
that he would do his utmost to stop the sale of liquor to minors and blacklisted persons and close the saloons at midnight.

GOLDMAN TO STIR UP THE ANARCHISTS

Refused a Meeting in Paris They Will Now Hold a Convention in
This Country.

New York, Oct. 24.—Emma Goldman, the anarchist, will sail for this country about the middle of the month.
She comes here to lecture incidentally,
but primarily to stir up the anarchists. The anarchists all over the world are in a much disgruntled state of mind, due to their inability to hold a convention in Paris. Delegates were sent there from this and other countries a few weeks ago, but the police of Paris, they allege, watched them so closely that they were unable to get together.

The anarchists were nearly crazed with anger at not being able to hold their convention, as they said they had several important questions to pass upon. One of these was the request of one of their number that the "propaganda of the deed" meaning killing of kings, be abolished.
Those who wanted the "propaganda of the deed" abandoned favored the sending of arms, bombs, and dynamite among the people, so that they could start a full fledged revolution when it was deemed the right time had arrived.

It is said that the anarchists will now try to hold their convention in this country.

Madrid, Oct. 24.—The French steamers Mitidjah and Faidherbe collided last night off Alicante in the Mediterranean fog. The Faidherbe sank were drowned.

Yellow Fever in Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 24.—The illness of Major Howard, chief of surgeons of the division of Cuba, has developed into yellow fever. Three majors have already died. Eighty-three cases and

There have been 789 cases since June 1st.

TRUSTED TELLER STEALS $700,000

C. L. Alvord Proves a De-faulter for a Very Large Amount.

THEFT IS LONG HIDDEN

First National Bank of New York is a Victim to Over Confidence.

CULPRIT HAS DISAPPEARED

New York, Oct. 24.—Wall street was startled by the announcement that Charles L. Alvord, note teller to the First National bank, was a defaulter to the amount of $700,000. This is probably the heaviest bank defalcation since the famous case of the Second National bank in 1884. Vast as is the amount of its loss, exceeding the capital stock of the institution by $200, 000, the bank is as sound as Gibraltar.
It is a proud possessor of a surplus and undivided profits of $3,114,251. Its own announcement of the theft carries with it the interesting news that the total amount of the loss has been charged off the books of the bank out of a reserve fund without diminishing the surplus and profits as last reported on Sept. 5. Alvord's whereabouts are unknown. He is supposed to have fled to South America. Most mysterious are the circumstances connected with the looting of the institution by one of its most trusted employees. The officials of the institution to-day were reticent concerning the affair. True, they made a public announcement, in which they did not spare themselves, for they admitted that the robbery had continued for a long interval and passed undetected after numerous examinations; but when it came to asking the methods pursued by Alvord, they declined to discuss that feature of the case. It had been skillfully concealed through manipulations of his balance book.

Official Statement Issued.

The following statement was issued by the bank:

"The note teller, who has been in the employ of the First National bank for many years, is a defaulter to a large amount. His operations have continued for a considerable period and have been skillfully concealed through a manipulation of his balance book. The discovery was made by one of the bank's employees a few days after the completion of an examination of the bank by the United States examiners. During the continuance of his speculations periodical examinations have been made by several distinct corps of examiners representing the controller's department, all expert accountants, and the bank has also had frequent independent examinations; neither of which has developed any irregularity. The aggregate of the false entries, amounting to $700,000, has been charged off on the books of the bank out of the reserve fund without diminishing the surplus and profits of the bank as reported in its last published statement. It is expected that the shortage will be materially reduced by a substantial sum of which there is fair prospect of recovering."

An Old and Trusted Employee.

Alvord had been with the bank for twenty years and was one of the most trusted men in the institution. His stealings extended over a long period, but no suspicion of the truth was known until ten days ago, when he sent word that he was ill at his home.
After he had been away for a day or two the bank put experts at work and some irregularities were found. As the experts delved deeper and deeper into Alvord's books the extent of the robbery began to dawn on the officers, until they were overwhelmed to find that it reached the enormous figure of $700,000. Whether that sum is all that he took is not yet known.

May Be in South America.

DEMOCRATIC BOODLE

THE POVERTY SYMPATHETIC OF THE COMMITTEE WON'T WORK.

"Ex-Senator" Clark Contributes $100,000—Officials of Democratic Cities Will Be Assessed—It Makes a Difference Whose Ox Is Gored—Chairman Jones and the Cotton Trust.

[Special New York Letter.]
It must not be supposed that the Democratic national committee is going to be without funds in this political campaign. In fact, it is abundantly in funds at present, and all signs indicate that it will continue to be "flush" throughout. That is already evident from the way in which Chairman Jones and his committee are spending money, and furthermore it is not hard to imagine or indeed to find out exactly where immense amounts of the "dough" are coming from.

The New York World, the leading Democratic paper here, has stated positively in so many words that William A. Clark of Montana, whom it calls "ex-senator," as if he had been in the senate, gave his check just before he sailed for Europe to Chairman Jones for $100,000, promising to do more and better later on if it should be necessary, and of course it will be necessary.

The World also quotes "ex-Senator" Clark's friends as declaring that the Montana multimillionaire and his brother would rather give $500,000 than see the electoral vote of his own state cast for McKinley.

It is difficult to realize that so much money could be spent for such a purpose in so comparatively small a state, yet those who are best posted about such matters consider it entirely possible in view of what Mr. Clark has done in similar directions hitherto. It goes without saying that Clark and his Montana delegation were not admitted to the Kansas City convention without his agreeing to do something handsome in return, and Clark has evidently made a beginning, though perhaps a small one, in doing that handsome thing.

The World, by the way, prints a facsimile of the Clark check for $100,000, so that its existence would seem to have been real.

Senator Chandler of New Hampshire is well remembered for his extraordinary and successful efforts to keep William A. Clark out of the senate, and now it is a commonly accepted fact in New Hampshire that Clark is going to return these courtesies by spending no end of money, all that might be required, to defeat Mr. Chandler for re-election. It is doubtful if this kind of thing will go in New Hampshire, especially if it becomes sufficiently well known that Clark is determined upon that course. The incident, doubtless a true one, is sufficient to illustrate, however, that Clark has all kinds of money to spend, a fact long well known, and that he is willing to spend it, and he is not much more particular about the locality where his leg is pulled than he is about the method by which the act is done.

The Democrats, as is well known, are in control of almost all of the large cities, and as no jealousy for civil service reform concerns them when they get in it follows that nearly all of the officeholders in the large cities are Democrats. So stanch an antireform paper as the New York Herald declares that half a million dollars will be raised among the Democratic officeholders of New York and Brooklyn. This is entirely credible, and if that much can be done in these localities alone it is an indication that ten times as much money could probably be raised in other Democratic cities, all taken together, especially since Mr. Bryan has pointed out that the Bryanite campaign is very fortunate in having control of the organization in the chief cities. Perhaps this is the real reason that he had in mind for congratulating himself.

It makes a difference whose ox is gored, in proof of which two stories, and pretty good ones, are always recalled here when we hear so many of these predictions, largely known to be false, on the part of leading Democrats that what they really love more than anything is the "dear peepul."

One story relates to the Hon. "Buck" Hinckson. A year ago last July the Democratic national committee met in Chicago. Ex-Governor Stone, Mr. Bryan and others, after the chief business of the meeting was over, were invited to attend the opening of the new Chicago canal. "Buck" Hinckson was there, his pockets fairly bulging with street car and railroad passes and the telephone and telegraph franks that usually are sent to the gentlemen with the real pull.

It is related with every mark of truth that ex-Governor Stone saw these evidences of corruption favor and asked the honorable "Buck" to procure for him a pass back to St. Louis, whether he did not want to walk. Some one asked if the ex-governor of Missouri would fall so low as to accept a pass from a corporation, when Mr. Stone said:

"What, I? Try me!"
The other story is the old, old one about Mayor Jones of Toledo. He was such a good man, and doubtless is still such a good man, that he does not believe in government by injunction. But when somebody with an invention rivaling his own famous sucker rod patent proposed to do business in spite of Jones, the socialist, golden rule mayor of Toledo promptly applied for an injunction according to the usual legal form.

It does seem to make a difference after all whose ox is gored.

The newspapers here seemed to delight when Chairman Jones was last upon the spot to ask him all about the American Cotton company. They wanted to know if that was a trust and if he was really in it and if it was popular among the plantation owners of the south and elsewhere. Mr. Jones made more or less evasive replies.

The most pointed questions were not answered, perhaps because nobody thought to ask them. The American Cotton company is capitalized at $7,000,000. No one is foolish enough to pretend that that amount of money has been paid in or that the company has property of any kind that by the wildest stretch of the imagination could be set down as worth any such figure. Seven hundred thousand dollars, perhaps $700,000, would fully represent the actual property of the company. It is not likely that the personality of Mr. Jones himself on the Democratic side of the senate and also in the finance committee of the senate has any $7 interest or $70 interest or indeed any $700 interest in the American Cotton company. His pile has been made out of these possessions. Since he has always been a poor man and has never been known as a promoter of financial or manufacturing enterprises, the conclusion is irresistible that the American Cotton company was a good thing for Mr. Jones, either because of his political prominence or because of his prominence in the finance committee of the senate, for he and John E. Seales, the head of the American Cotton company and the former treasurer and the real head of the Sugar trust, are dear old friends. They have met many a time on the gory field of trust legislation at the national capital. What so natural as that Mr. Seales should put his good friend Jones in the way of making his everlasting fortune out of the American Cotton company?

Jones is considered to be a rich man. Where did he get it? This is the significant question that the New York papers forgot to ask Mr. Jones. He has not patented a $1,000,000 invention. He is not a great money raiser for commercial purposes. He unquestionably holds large quantities of the stock, mostly watered or, of course, of the American Cotton company.

Here is another evidence that it makes a difference whose ox is gored.

From Privation to Fortune.
Denver, Col., Oct. 24.—After years of poverty and privation in New York and latterly in Denver, Mrs. Eleanor Cory and her little son Harold have gone home to Manchester, England, to meet a husband and father on his deathbed and to inherit a fortune of $500,000. Mrs. Cory was an American singer and went to England more than fifteen years ago. She and Arthur Cory were married and for five years, in spite of parental objection, they lived together. Finally affairs came to such a pass that it was either necessary for Cory to give up his wife or his inheritance. He gave up his wife.

Fighter Hurled Off a Train.
Nashville, Ill., Oct. 24.—During a desperate fight on the rear platform of an Illinois Central train going a mile a minute, Walter Crosby, a New York traveling salesman, one of the combatants, was pushed from the train and thrown a distance of fifty feet. He was unhurt. Crosby and a salesman named Hunter engaged in a political discussion on a Cairo-St. Louis division train and went to the rear platform to argue. The fight resulted. Crosby rolled down an embankment.

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAIN.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and sometimes white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seals, 115 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and burst. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

SSS makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage.

"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained; I warn him not to cast his vote for me because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—Hon. ## NATIONAL GREATNESS.

The rapid strides made by America during the last few years are a marvel to the world and should arouse in the heart of every loyal citizen a feeling of pride and intense patriotism. There is no land under the sun where intelligent effort has been crowned with such wonderful success and there is no nation under the sun possessing so broad and comprehensive intelligence. In every department of national life the call to activity has aroused dormant energies, and results have surpassed the most sanguine expectations. Three years ago our navy was the laughing stock of the world, but in six short months it came to the front with ships and men and guns, a strong and gallant fleet that commanded the respect and admiration of all nations.

Four years ago our national treasury was depleted and money was borrowed in liberal amount to pay current expenses, the balance of trade was against us and our market was flooded with foreign goods, produced by half paid foreign labor, while our own factories were silent and thousands of idle men were alarmed at the conditions and suffering in consequence. Today the national treasury is loaded with money, the balance of trade is many hundreds of millions in our favor, every factory in every part of the land is running to its full capacity and every man who is willing to work finds employment at good wages at his door.

From a nation of borrowers we have become a nation of lenders.

American enterprise and American money have found their way into the heart of Europe and the sturdy Englishman of conservative habits looks on with surprise, "Don't you know?" At the south end in London an immense hotel is about to be erected. It will be built with American money and run by Americans on the American plan and will be the first steam heated hotel in that great city.

The much traduced and maligned Chas. T. Yerkes, a typical American, the man who has accomplished more for the city of Chicago in the way of rapid transit than all his traducers will accomplish in a century, possessed the nerve and keen business intelligence to quietly invade the city of London a few months ago and resurrect an old charter that had been in pickle for a number of years. With this relic as a nucleus and without the aid of English capital he will proceed to show the old city within the next two years a sample of American enterprise on English soil, or rather ninety feet below the surface which will be the road bed of his two penny shoot. This underground railroad that Mr. Yerkes has planned to build for the city of London will be an object lesson to the old world in which America will not be the loser. All honor to Mr. Yerkes as the originator and developer of the plan.

Steel rails and steel armor of American manufacture are being delivered abroad by the thousands of tons, and engines and locomotives are furnishing the motive power to factories and railroads in almost every land. The American trade mark is a pass word for excellence.

What has produced this wonderful transformation and why does the national greatness stand out so prominently before the world today? The same people, the same nation possessing the same possibilities, yet lacking in every essential feature. From paralysis to life, from sluggishness to activity, from dependency and despair to hope and prosperity, the nation has sprung at a single bound. One thing that has contributed largely to this wonderful transformation is the guiding hand of an honest and intelligent administration, possessing the ability and courage to meet and solve the great questions that confront the destiny of a nation. President McKinley and his supporters are representative Americans. They believe in America for Americans, and practice what they believe. If the nation would continue to increase in greatness the people will not hesitate to set their seal of approval upon a wise administration.

The registration lists throughout the country indicate that while voters are not spending much time on dress parade with marching clubs, that they propose to take a day off November 6, and endorse the McKinley administration.

Mr. Stevenson, the Bryanistic candidate for vice president is claiming the election of his ticket by a good majority. This was the man who said in 1862 that he was glad Lincoln was shot and he should have been killed earlier.

Henry Clews of New York in his weekly financial review of this week says that Wall Street no longer doubts the result of the election and that business is already reviving rapidly.

MINERS PARADE IN THE RAIN.

Mitchell Predicts the Strike Will Be Over by Monday.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 24.—Rain fell heavily during the miners' parade, but the large crowd—estimated at nearly 6,000 persons—did not seem to mind the downpour. John Fahey, president of the district, presided. President Mitchell's speech was listened to with great interest. His most important utterance, bearing directly on the ending of the strike, was as follows: "I believe it will be but a few days longer until the operators in the Hazleton, Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys will consent to post notices agreeing to pay the 10 per cent increase in wages until April 1. I believe that if you stand together the rest of this week by Monday at the latest you can return to work with everything won you struck for."

New York, Oct. 24.—A special to the World from Scranton, says that at midnight information was received there that President Mitchell had agreed to the operators' offer and that the strike is ended. The news was received with great excitement by both operators and strikers. It is understood all the companies will post notices, with the exception of the Pennsylvania and Susquehanna railroad. Notwithstanding this information no definite message on the subject has yet been received from President Mitchell.

FAVOR THE WHIPPING POST.

London Magistrates Believe It the Only Remedy for Lawlessness.

New York, Oct. 24.—The recent outbreaks of "Hooliganism" in London, says the Tribune's correspondent, have revived the agitation in favor of the restoration of the whipping post as a remedy for ruffianism and lawlessness. The police magistrates are striving to repress these murderous revels in the streets by stern rebukes and rigorous sentences for the leaders of the criminal gangs in Chelsea and South London.

The spirit of disorder is evidently spreading to other and more reputable classes, for the medical students have been striving to break up the public meeting at St. Martin's town hall and to mob the constables who arrested the ringleaders.

THERE IS NO RETREAT.

An Incident of President McKinley's Life as a Soldier Shows His Character.

"There is no such word as retreat, boys. Charge!"

"There is no such word as retreat. Kinley nearly 40 years ago. They picture the character of the president to-day as of the soldier of 1862.

Thomas O'Callahan, with one eye blinded and one ear closed to sound forever by a bullet wound, received under the national colors at Gettysburg, is now a resident of Fort Collins. He served through the war with distinguished bravery.

"I served under President McKinley in 1863 and have met him frequently since. Every meeting brings back to me one of the most patriotic representations that ever passed the lips of a soldier. A party of 40 men under the then Maj. McKinley went on scouting duty. They were perilous times then. "All went well until we reached the top of a hill and unexpectedly ran into a body of Johnnies, numbering between 300 and 400. They were in ambush, drawn up in firing line and awaiting our approach. Our first knowledge of their presence in the ambush was a volley, which brought down our three front fours of horses and men.

"Retreat!" our captain shouted. "There is no such word as retreat, boys. Charge!" came a second order, this time from Maj. McKinley, who, drawing his sword, dashed ahead, followed by every one of the men except those who had given their lives to the cause. The enemy were completely astounded, and, at our charge, retreated in confusion.

Before we started on this scouting expedition, we were ordered to take three days' provisions. I had a sack of pounded oats on the pommel of my saddle. After the rout of the enemy, I turned the oats out to feed my horse, and found 15 bullets in the sack. My horse was wounded, as was Maj. McKinley's, and his sword hilt was cut to pieces by bullets. Maj. McKinley laughingly called attention to it, and at the same time complimenting his men on their bravery, remarked: "You have done me a great favor, boys, and if it ever lies in my power, I'll reciprocate."

GRAND WELCOME TO LA FOLLETTE

Local Republicans Will Celebrate His Arrival Tomorrow Night.

PARADE IS A FEATURE

Hon. John M. Whitehead To Preside at Big Meeting at Opera House.

IMMENSE CROWD EXPECTED

The biggest celebration of the campaign takes place here tomorrow night. The republicans from all the surrounding towns have been waiting for this chance to show their party loyalty and will turn out en masse.

The Young Men's Republican Club is sparing no expense and trouble to get together all the paraphernalia necessary to accommodate the large number who will be in the parade. This is the only real big celebration of the campaign and will be one that no one will forget.

The Republican Club have engaged the Myers Opera House for the evening speech by Mr. LaFollette and it will no doubt be packed to the doors with people anxious to hear this famous orator.

Meet LaFollette at Milton. A committee consisting of Mr. T. S. Nolan, chairman of the Rock County Republican Committee, and E. D. Roberts, from the Young Men's Republican Club, will go to Milton Junction to meet Mr. LaFollette and accompany him to the Bower City. He will arrive here at 5:30 and will be escorted to the hotel where he will have supper.

In the evening the republicans will meet at the building north of the west side engine house where they will be supplied with torches and banners.

Line of the March.

The parade will form on North River street and the line of march will be as follows: North on River to Wall, west on Wall to Academy, south on Academy to West Milwaukee, east on Milwaukee to Main, south on Main to Third, where they will countermarch and go north on Main to East Milwaukee, east on Milwaukee to the opera house where it will disband and go into the opera house.

Edgerton will come down with fifty marchers and a brass band and it is expected that large delegations will also come from all the surrounding towns.

Marshall E. A. Hyde will form the parade as follows:

Mounted Marshals E. D. Roberts, Dr. James Gibson, W. H. Appleby, Edgerton Cornet Band, Edgerton Marchers, Imperial Band, Janesville Republican Club, G. A. R. Drum Corps, Janesville Marchers.

Mr. Whitehead will preside.

J. M. Whitehead will preside at the opera house and the committee have especially requested Col. E. O. Kimberley to sing. There will also be music by the Edgerton Band, Imperial Band and G. A. R. Drum Corps.

Chairs have been provided on the stage to accommodate the Republican club and will be reserved for them. The Club would like to impress on the minds of the republicans the necessity of starting early, so asks them to be on North River street at 6:45, where torches will be provided.

Meetings in Rock County.

Congressman H. A. Cooper will speak at Edgerton on the evening of Oct. 27, at Evansville Oct. 31 and at Janesville Nov. 1. He will draw large crowds at each place.

Hon. P. H. Fay will address a republican rally at Orfordville on Saturday evening, Oct. 27. He is said to be an excellent speaker.

HON. H. A. COOPER SPEAKS AT BELOIT

GIVES ATTENTION TO FALSE DEMOCRATIC PROPHECIES.

His Discussion of the Issues of the Campaign Was Very Impressive and Logical—All References to McKinley and Roosevelt Brought Out the Wildest Demonstration.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 24.—Congressman H. A. Cooper of this, the first, congressional district addressed a great republican meeting last night. He gave much attention to the false prophecies of the democratic party and appealed to voters to think for themselves what would be the probable results of another "change" such as the people voted in 1892.

He did not think the people of Beloit had such short memories that they would forget those days of gloom when they had a "change" and had it "bad." His discussion of militarism and imperialism was very impressive and he read from platforms and speeches of the democrats on those subjects covering a period of many years and asked if there was a person in the audience who was willing to enforce the planks he mentioned.

He ridiculed the alarm the present democratic party pretend to feel over imperialism and asked if Jefferson, the founder of their party, was a tyrant; yet he signed the Louisiana Purchase bill.

He said, in discussing the Philippine question, that he would not vote for a permanent colonial system. He asked the audience, and paused for an answer, if there was a government in the Philippines beside that of our own that any citizen of Beloit would be willing to depend upon for protection of themselves, their wives or their property.

He said the policy of the government was to give the greatest possible blessings to all the people of the islands. He spoke very forcibly against the idea of extending the Monroe doctrine across the Pacific. Reference to McKinley and Roosevelt created much enthusiasm.

It is the intention of Mr. Conrad to make the new warehouse a model structure having a storage capacity of 1500 cases. The building is one story high and was built for a foundry and general machine shop.

When the warehouse is placed in condition several hands will be given employment which will be welcome news to residents in that section of the city.

The warehouse is so situated so that with but little trouble and expense the Chicago & Northwestern railroad company could extend to its very door a spur track.

CHINA OFFERS PEACE TERMS.

Proposals by Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang.

FULL TEXT OF THE DOCUMENT.

Admission of Liability for Indemnity for Losses Sustained by the Powers—Robots Welcomed as Friends—American Troops Leave Peking.

London, Oct. 24.—A news agency dispatch from Peking, via Taku, says: A preliminary convention between China and the combined powers has been proposed by Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang. It is as follows:

"Article 1. Laying siege to the legations of foreign ministers is a high offense against one of the important principles of international law. No country can possibly tolerate such a thing. China acknowledges her great fault in this respect, and promises that it will never occur again.

"Article 2. China admits her liability to pay an indemnity for the various losses sustained on this occasion, and the powers will each appoint officials to examine and present all claims for a final consultation and settlement.

"Article 3. As to future trade and general international relations, each power should designate how these matters are to be dealt with, whether the old treaties should continue, or new conventions should be made slightly adding to the old treaties or canceling the old treaties and negotiating new ones. Any of these plans may be adopted, and when China has approved them further special regulations can be made in each case as required.

"Article 4. This convention will be made by China with the combined powers to cover the general principles which apply alike to all. This settled, the foreign ministers will remove the seals they have caused to be placed in various parts of the Tsung-li-Yamen, and then the ministers may go to the Yamen and attend to business as usual. And further, each power should arrange its own special affairs with China, so that separate treaties may be settled in due order. When the various items of indemnity are all arranged properly, or an understanding has been come to about them, the powers will successively withdraw their troops.

"Article 5. The troops sent to China by the powers are for the protection of the ministers and no other purpose, so when the negotiations begin for treaties of peace each power should first declare an armistice.

Powers in Accord. Washington, D. C., Oct. 24.—The government is now satisfied that there will be no further hitch in the initiation of peace negotiations between the powers and China.

Robots Welcomed as Friends. Hongkong, Oct. 24.—Refugees from Huichau, who have arrived here, report that the rebels in the southern provinces are bound to succeed. They are welcomed by the inhabitants everywhere they go.

American Troops Quit Peking. Shanghai, Oct. 24.—The fourteenth United States Infantry has departed from Peking. It was escorted beyond the walls by the other American troops. The royal Welsh fusiliers have also departed. The date of the meeting of the foreign ministers with Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang has not yet been definitely fixed. Some of the ministers have not yet received instructions from their governments; two are absent from the capital and one is ill.

London a Harbor in China. London, Oct. 24.—The Globe announces that Great Britain has leased from the English contractors the harbor works of Chingwanato, now in course of construction, for a period of eight months with the object of landing men and stores there and utilizing the branch railroad thence to Tanghai, where it joins the main line to Peking.

Chinese Pirates Rob a Ship. Canton, Oct. 24.—A vessel having on board 100 passengers was boarded by pirates ten miles below here. Several thousand pounds of specie were taken.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., stuck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Smith's pharmacy, opposite P. O., Kodak agents.

PRESIDENT IS IN CANTON.

Mr. McKinley Expects to Remain in Ohio Until After Election.

Canton, O., Oct. 24.—President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley reached Canton about 10:30 o'clock, coming in a private car attached to the regular Pennsylvania train. There was no organized demonstration in honor of their return, but a large number of people assembled on the station platform and bid them hearty welcome as they passed under a large flag, draped over a section of the platform.

Their own carriage, which was sent here early in the summer, was in waiting for them and they were driven to their home. Accompanying the President and Mrs. McKinley were Secretary to the President Cortelyou, Dr. Rixey, the stenographers and clerks from the executive office and the members of the domestic household, who were here during the summer months. The president and Mrs. McKinley expect to remain here until after election day, except that the president, according to recent plans, will go to Mansfield for the Sherman funeral.

BRYAN AT THE CAPITAL.

Makes a Short Speech on "Imperialism" and Civil Service.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 24.—William J. Bryan passed an hour and a quarter at the national capital, and while here expressed his views on civil service. His train arrived over the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad from West Virginia at 7:55 o'clock, an hour late. About 1,000 people were awaiting him at the depot. Mr. Bryan said:

"Occasionally I hear it suggested that persons engaged in the civil service who are opposed to imperialism will vote the republican ticket for fear of losing their positions with the government. Certainly there are not many who would prefer government employment under an empire to whatever risk might attend their employment under a republic. I am not much of an admirer of that civil service which is suspended when a president is inaugurated until he can fill the offices with his friends and is extended by the president when he is about to retire, in order that he may protect his friends in office.

"I believe that a system of civil service might be devised wherein appointments would be made upon merit and wherein the appointees would hold for a fixed time and not be dependent upon the will of an appointing officer.

Roosevelt's Great Day.

Pine Hill, N.Y., Oct. 24.—Gov. Roosevelt started early from Kingston, to cover 276 miles before night and make fifteen speeches. The first stop was at West Shokan, where a big crowd was in waiting, and the governor spoke briefly. At Shokan the entire population seemed to have gathered at the station. The governor said:

"Mr. Bryan says he wants to benefit the wage-worker and give him a better share in the prosperity. So do I. Mr. Bryan's remedy is to make the employer and the wage-worker earn nothing, and to reduce them to a common level of misery."

The governor then went on to say he appealed to Republicans and Democrats alike, and asked them to distinguish between the names of things and the things themselves, and stated "a ton of oratory was not worth an ounce of performance."

Boers Still Killing Britons.

Cape Town, Oct. 24.—Guerrilla attacks by the Boers are still giving great trouble. General French encountered continuous opposition in his march from Carolina to Bethel, his casualties numbering thirty-six. After the arrival of Lord Methuen at Zeebrugge there was a reconnaissance in force northward, which resulted in the discovery of large numbers of Boers, who were only dislodged after artillery and rifle fire lasting four hours. The British had four killed and ten wounded. The Boers take shelter in farmhouses, which are crowded with women and children. Lord Roberts is distributing a fresh circular to the effect that Boers voluntarily surrendering who have never taken the oath of neutrality will not be exiled, but will be permitted to return to their farms at the conclusion of hostilities.

Guilt of Macedonians.

Sofia, Oct. 24.—By the decision of the chamber of deputies the accusation made by the Roumanian government against the Macedonian committee has been remitted to Mr. Ivanchoff, the foreign minister, for investigation. The accusation offers distinct proofs of the guilt of the Macedonian committee, but the complete evidence has not yet arrived. Mr. Ivanchoff promises that he will begin the investigation at once.

Five Children Killed in a Fire.

Montreal, Que., Oct. 24.—Fire in a small tenement house in the Archambault lane at 1:30 o'clock this morning resulted in the death by suffocation of five children. The father, Arthur Le Blanc, a shoemaker, was badly burned, but will live. The mother was slightly injured. The children were in an upper room.

"Thou changest not—yet, I am always changing," said the substitute to Rocky Mountain Tea. Made by the Madison Medicine Company. 35 cents. Smith's pharmacy, kodak agents, opposite P. O.

Negroes Lynch a Negro.

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24.—Gloster Barnes, colored, was lynched by a mob of his own people in the northern part of this county. In a drunken fury Barnes murdered his wife, stabbed and badly wounded a negro who interfered, and engaged in a rifle fight with a white man who attempted to arrest him. He was caught by a posse after a desperate fight, in which he was shot through the thigh. In charge of two colored deputies, Barnes was started for the county jail here. On the road his escort was put to flight by a big crowd of negroes, who took the murderer into a ticket and shot him to death.

Stockman Robbed of $2,700.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—D. O. Prisor, a stock dealer from Butler, was held up by highwaymen in the borough of Millvale and robbed of $2,700. The money represented the proceeds of five carloads of cattle. The hold-up was accomplished by two men as Prisor was walking along the Evergreen road. One man held a revolver to his head while the other went through his pockets. The highwaymen then leisurely walked away, and Prisor hastened to notify the police. Prisor can give no description of the men, except that one was tall and the other short.

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

WINE OF CARDUI

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.
